ORDERED THAT:

San Francisco, California. An updated joint case management conference statement shall be filed no later than September 16, 2014.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the following case management and pretrial order is entered:

1. TRIAL DATE

a. Jury trial will begin on August 3, 2015 at 8:30 a.m. in Courtroom E, 15th Floor, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102. Should a daily transcript and/or realtime reporting be desired, the parties shall make arrangements with Debra Campbell, Court Reporter Supervisor, at (415) 522-2079 or Debra_Campbell@cand.uscourts.gov, at least 14 days prior to the trial date.

b. The length of the trial will be not more than 5 - 7 days.

2. DISCOVERY

1           a. All non-expert discovery shall be completed no later than March 2, 2015. There
2 will be no further non-expert discovery after that date except by order of the Court for good cause
3 shown. Motions to compel non-expert discovery must be filed within the time limits contained in Civil 4 Local Rule 26-2.

5           b. The Parties shall disclose any expert(s) on whom they intend to rely for summary
6 judgment, if any, at least 28 days prior to filing their motion for summary judgment, and shall make 7 them available for deposition within 14 days of their disclosure. All other initial expert disclosures shall 8 be made no later than March 6, 2015. Rebuttal expert disclosures shall be made no later than March 27, 9 2015. All treating physicians who will provide opinion testimony beyond that which can be provided
10 by a lay person must be disclosed as expert witnesses, but they need not prepare expert reports unless 11 ordered to do so by the Court.

12           c. All expert discovery shall be completed no later than May 1, 2015. There will 13 be no further expert discovery after that date except by order of the Court for good cause shown.

15 26-2.

16           d. Plaintiffs to disclose any expert on whom they intend to rely on for summary
17 judgment by March 2, 2015 and make him/her available for deposition by March 16, 2015.

18           e. Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires all parties to supplement
19 or correct their initial disclosures, expert disclosures, pretrial disclosures, and responses to discovery
20 requests under the circumstances itemized in that Rule, and when ordered by the Court. The Court
21 expects that the parties will supplement and/or correct their disclosures promptly when required under 22 that Rule, without the need for a request from opposing counsel. In addition to the general
23 requirements of Rule 26(e)(1), the parties will supplement and/or correct all previously made 24 disclosures and discovery responses 28 days before the fact discovery cutoff date.

25           f. Pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-1(b), telephone conferences are available to resolve
26 disputes during a discovery event, such as a deposition, where the resolution during the event likely 27 would result in substantial savings of expense or time.

28           g. Privilege logs. If a party withholds information that is responsive to a discovery request, and is otherwise discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, by claiming that it is privileged, or protected from discovery under the attorney work product doctrine or any other protective doctrine (including, but not limited to, privacy rights), that party shall prepare a "privilege log" (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)) setting forth the privilege relied upon and specifying separately for each document or for each category of similarly situated documents:

1. The name and job title or capacity of the author;
2. The name and job title or capacity of each recipient;
3. The date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) on which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its author(s);
4. The title and description of the document;
5. The subject matter addressed in the document;
6. The purpose(s) for which it was prepared or communicated; and
7. The specific basis for the claim that it is privileged.

The privilege log will be produced as quickly as possible, but no later than 14 days after the discovery responses are due (in a rolling production, 14 days after each set of documents is produced), unless the parties stipulate or the Court orders otherwise in a particular case.

h. In responding to requests for documents and materials under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all parties shall affirmatively state in a written response served on all other parties the full extent to which they will produce materials and shall, promptly after the production, confirm in writing that they have produced all such materials so described that are locatable after a diligent search of all locations at which such materials might plausibly exist.

3. MOTIONS

The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to join other parties shall be September 19, 2014.

The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to amend the pleadings shall be September 19, 2014.

The last day for hearing dispositive motions shall be May 5, 2015. Dispositive motions shall be served and filed no later than thirty-five (35) days prior to the scheduled hearing date. Briefing shall be in compliance with Civil Local Rule 7-3.
